CHORUS.

Back, along the road, along the road to Sing-apore I want my girl, my Hin-doo pearl, To be with me for ev-er-more, I want to sail a-way today, to where the la-zy palm trees sway,

The New East India Melody
"ALONG THE ROAD TO SINGAPORE"
Improvement—the order of the age. The public tire very easily. They forget quickly. They crave new things. Here's a brand new one:

"ALONG

"ALONG THE ROAD TO SINGAPORE" is not an oriental tune; it is a melody, the like of which you have never heard before It is strictly an East India creation It brings to you the tang of the atmosphere of that little island—"SINGAPORE"

THE

The theme is "acid resisting". You just HAVE to like it. You can't get away from it That quaint—far off land in East India is brought right to your home.

ROAD

The composers of "SINGAPORE" have superseded all of their former efforts and have given to the music buying public, of whom no doubt you are one, a song that will linger in your memory for years to come.
